

Abstract Instruction

Students were given simple commands to follow such as "Draw three straight lines" or "Draw two circles". They used those prompts to create an abstract picture. When we were done we looked at all the pictures in the room and were surprised to see that even though they were given the same instructions all the pictures looked different, and that was okay!

Materials:

12"x18" assorted colored paper
markers

